DAY 7

Seville – Ronda - Granada

Meet your driver at the hotel and private transfer to Ronda (1h 45 mins approx.).

Upon arrival in Ronda, meet your local guide to begin the city tour. Built on an isolated ridge of the sierra it's split in half by a gaping river gorge, El Tajo, which drops sheer for 130 m on three sides. The gorge is spanned by an eighteenth-century arched bridge, the Puente Nuevo with tall whitewashed houses leaning from its precipitous edges.

Begin your tour in the whitewashed historic quarter and visit Ronda's beautiful monumental bullring, it is the oldest stone bullring in Spain. Across the bridge is the old Moorish town where you will visit one of the towns palaces, perhaps el Bosco which is a modernist palace built at the beginning of the 20th century.

At the end of the tour, lunch at a local restaurant at your own expense (direct payment).

Meet your driver and transfer to Granada hotel.
